Writing Seminar for Federal Criminal Appellate Practitioners

The United States Court of Appeals for the First Circuit and the members of the court's CJA Education Committee cordially invite you to participate in a court-sponsored, writing seminar for federal criminal appellate practitioners. There is no charge to attend this seminar.

Program: Professor Timothy P. Terrell, co-author of "Thinking Like a Writer: A Lawyer's Guide to Effective Writing and Editing," will address how to write a brief that is clear and persuasive. Experienced criminal appellate practitioners from the public and private sectors will add their own tips on brief writing and will also address major developments in First Circuit and United States Supreme Court law.

Who should attend: Both experienced brief writers and less seasoned appellate practitioners will benefit from the opportunity to learn from Professor Terrell, one of the foremost authorities on legal writing. He has conducted programs for judges, leading law firms, and government agencies.
